

Public Disclosure Notice

Lincoln Christian University Voluntary Resignation of Accreditation

Effective: May 31, 2024

Lincoln Christian University in Lincoln, Illinois, voluntarily resigned its accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission, effective May 31, 2024.

The institution's status as an HLC-accredited institution expires on the effective date above. Credits and degrees earned from the institution through this date remain accredited.

The institution has established Teach-Out Agreements that have been approved by HLC with:

- Abilene Christian University, Abilene, TX
- Bethel University, St. Paul, MN
- Colorado Christian University, Lakewood, CO
- Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, IL
- Hope International University, Fullerton, CA
- Johnson University, Knoxville, TN
- Ozark Christian College, Joplin, MO
- Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY
- University of Illinois Springfield, Springfield, IL
- Wheaton College, Wheaton, IL

Ozark Christian College will retain student records and handle transcript requests from Lincoln Christian University students. Information on records and transcripts also is available from the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Students with federal loans may be eligible to pursue a closed-school student-loan discharge.

To provide transparency for all stakeholders, HLC publishes a Directory of Institutions on its website. The directory includes information about a college or university's accreditation status and history with HLC.

About the Higher Learning Commission

The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities in the United States. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions? Contact info@hlcommission.org or call 312.263.0456.

Posting Date: May 31, 2024