

Public Disclosure Notice

Union Institute & University Voluntary Resignation of Accreditation

Effective: June 25, 2024

Union Institute & University in Cincinnati, Ohio, voluntarily resigned its accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission, effective June 25, 2024.

The institution's status as an HLC-accredited institution expires on the effective date above. Credits and degrees earned from the institution through this date remain accredited.

The institution has established Teach-Out Arrangements that have been approved by HLC with:

- Antioch University, Yellow Springs, Ohio
- Lasell University, Newton, Massachusetts

Arrangements are being made to make student information system data available via Parchment. A partner institution for potential retention of student information is also being identified with the assistance of the Ohio Department of Education.

Students with federal loans may be eligible to pursue a closed-school student-loan discharge.

To provide transparency for all stakeholders, HLC publishes a Directory of Institutions on its website (hlcommission.org/directory). The directory includes information about a college or university's accreditation status and history with HLC.

About the Higher Learning Commission

The Higher Learning Commission accredits approximately 1,000 colleges and universities in the United States. HLC is a private, nonprofit accrediting agency. It is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. Questions? Contact info@hlcommission.org or call 312.263.0456.

Date of Action: June 25, 2024

Date of Posting: June 13, 2024